

Contents

Foreword	viii
Introduction	x
Part One—River Life
1. An Affinity for Rivers	1
2. A Sense of Place	5
3. Slow and Steady: A Life of Encounters with Illinois' Great Blue Heron	7
4. Starved Rock and the Illinois River's Locks and Dams	13
5. An Illinois River Canoeing Journal: Nature's Ways on Illinois' Busy Waterway	17
6. Illinois' Continental Divide: Mud Lake and the Chicago Portage	23
7. Timeless Scenes Along the Illinois River	25
8. Bald Eagles on a Morning Commute	31
9. The Eagle Quest	33
10. Wings Over the River: A Portrait of Illinois' Swallows	37
11. First Glimpse of the Upper Mississippi River Valley	45
12. A Lesson in Nature's Dynamics: Barton-Sommer's Woodland	49
13. Dead Trees, Disturbance, and Illinois' Red-headed Woodpeckers	57
14. From the Misery Index to Havana	67
15. The Shorebirds Among Us	71
16. When Hawks Fly	77
17. Carrying on an Electro-shocking Legacy	85
18. Nature Along the Margins at Cooper Park Wetlands	91
19. As the Rivers Rise Again	99
20. The Gizzard Shad in Nature's Economy	103

21. In Praise of Sitting and Staring	110
--------------------------------------	-----

Part Two—Travel

22. Pursuing the Blue Goose Across Illinois	115
23. Eulogy for an Oak	127
24. Drawn to Antiquity	135
25. A Western Birding Excursion: Of Wind, Rain, Rocks, and Renewal	139
26. Ties	151
27. From a Great Lakes Journal: Of Sand, Glaciers, and Birds	155
28. Encounters with the Niagara River	165
29. Taking in the American Bottom	169
30. Isle Royale: A Wilderness Island in Lake Superior	173
Epilogue: Thoughts on Twenty-five Years as a Naturalist	181
Acknowledgments	185